“Can-CoreAV is always my go to when asked for films by and about Indigenous peoples of Canada. It is a great resource for Truth and Reconciliation in academic institutions. The calls to action from the Truth and Reconciliation include educating ourselves about Indigenous history, culture, and current issues. Can-CoreAV provides material covering all these areas. I recommended film titles from the Can-CoreAV collection to our support staff in our last union newsletter. We have also included Can-CoreAV titles in Library Media Services promotions on the College Portal.” - Arlene Marsh, John Abbott College Library Media Services
